

March 28-29, 2012

Union Presbyterian Seminary

Richmond, VA

8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., ET, both days

Growing into Tomorrow...Today

Presented by:

The Board of Pensions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

Sponsored by:

Union Presbyterian Seminary
Center for Ministry and Leadership Development

Seminar audience:

Mid- to late-career clergy or lay plan
members

Their spouses or fiancé/es

Planning for retirement can be challenging.

Explore steps you can take today to plan for your best retirement tomorrow.

This two-day holistic seminar will cover your concerns and questions, as well as:

- Deciding where to live
- Maintaining optimal health now and later
- Integrating pension, Social Security, and personal savings
- Understanding Medicare and Medicare Supplements
- Looking at options for play, learning, volunteering, and work after retirement

Seating is limited to 25 registrants. There is no registration fee.

Questions? Contact the Member Education team!
Email us at education@pensions.org or call 800-773-7752, extension 7223.

Key Seminar Details

- Seminary meal fee: $20.00 per person for both days' lunches and refreshments
- Seminary housing: Details will be provided on the registration web site
- Confirmations include instructions for meal fee payments and housing reservations

Registration Information

- Registration open: November 28, 2011 – February 24, 2012
- Secure Board of Pensions registration website: <http://www.cvent.com/d/9cq8w5>.
- Register by deadline for material preparation and shipping purposes!